Dear Parents and Guardians of Carrollton Students,

We have come to a point in our society where social media – specifically TikTok – has created a list of monthly ‘challenges’ for teenagers to complete. Unfortunately, there are students that seemingly can’t resist the temptation to participate in these challenges – even though I believe that they have been raised better and know that these challenges are the wrong thing to do.

If you follow the news, you likely heard that the September challenge was to “Mess up or vandalize a restroom at your school”. I am not proud to tell you that some Carrollton students accepted the challenge; and are living with the consequences of their choices. Now that October is here, a new challenge awaits. I am asking for your support in encouraging your child not to participate in these social media antics. They will be disciplined for each and every offense which will make everyone unhappy. I have included below the list of challenges and I believe this will help you understand the reason for my concerns. Please talk to your child about the foolishness of these internet challenges and how important it is to make good choices.

September:	Vandalize school bathrooms
October:	Smack a staff member
November:	Kiss your friend’s girlfriend at school
December:	Deck the halls and show your bas (expose your privates)
January:	Jab a breast
February:	Mess up school signs
March:	Make a mess in the courtyard or cafeteria
April:	Grab some eggs (another stealing challenge)
May:	Ditch day
June:	Flip off in the front office
July:	Spray a neighbor’s fence

I wish I was making this up, but it is real. Again, thank you for your support as we try to stay focused on school matters – not challenges designed to disrupt learning and demean other students and staff members. Please call me at 330.627.2134 with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
